

Bluebonnet Baptist Association church leaders and friends,

There are churches in our area collecting goods for hurricane relief. If your church members want to donate goods, three options are listed below. Please share this information with anyone who may be interested.

Robby

1. FBC New Braunfels will be delivering supplies to the disaster relief site at Northside BC in Victoria (Pastor Darrell Tomasek, formerly of FBC Canyon Lake) this Saturday, Sept. 2. Supplies can be dropped off at the FBC New Braunfels gym now through Friday. The gym will be open until 8pm each night to receive donations. Items needed are: water, Gatorade, towels, diapers, baby wipes, snacks, and toiletries.

2. Oakwood Church in New Braunfels will be collecting items at their campus this Saturday 9am - 3pm. The supplies will go to the Texas coast in partnership with the Austin Disaster Relief Network. Items needed are: new undergarments (all sizes), new socks (all sizes), toiletries, new bed pillows, new blankets, cleaning supplies, black trash bags, mops and buckets, utility knives, leather work gloves, inflatable mattresses, hand sanitizer, and box fans. Other than the above, clothing is not needed at this time.

3. A number of churches, including Everyday Christian Fellowship in Cibolo, are partnering with FBC Huffman in the north Houston area. FBC Huffman is currently housing 300 evacuees. The drop off site for donations to support the Huffman ministry is FBC Live Oak, 11560 Toepperwein Rd. Trailers will leave FBC Live Oak with supplies this evening, Aug. 30 and Friday morning, Sept. 1. Supplies needed are: canned goods, bottles of water, socks, blankets, toiletries, feminine care products, baby food, diapers, and toilet paper.
